EARLY CALLING OF SENATE IS EXPECTED

Wilson May Call Extra Session for Consideration of Pending

Senator Stone, of Missouri, chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, arrived in Washington yesterday and will have a conference with the President today or tomorrow on the subject of an extra session of the Senate for this purpose. It is thought probable that purpose. It is thought probable that some ahnouncement will be forthcoming after the Senator's visit to the White

The treaties pending are those with Colombia and Nicaragua. They were both vigorously opposed during the last Congress. It is expected that if an extra session is called for consideration of these treaties, the administration will also place before the Senate the treaty with Halti, signed last week, providing for a United States protectorate over the negro republic.

It became known here last night that many Senators have been under the definite impression that the President would convene the Upper House of Congress six weeks or two months earlier han the date for the regular session of ongress, December 1. Senator Fletcher, of Florida, who was in Washington last cek, informed friends that it was the general expectation that the Senate would be convened in advance of the egular session. Senator Kern, majority eader in the Senate, has for some time arly for the purpose of passing a cloture

Of the treaties now pending, that with Colombia has attracted the most attention and aroused the most vigorous op-position. This treaty, negotiated in Bo gota last year, provides for the payment of $20,000,000 to Colombia, in compensation for the losses suffered by the South American republic through the separa-

republic of Colombia arising out of the events from which the present situation on the Isthmus of Panama resulted, expresses, on its own part and in the name of the people of the United States, sinoccurred to interrupt or mar the relations of cordial friendship that have so long subsisted between the two nations." "Blackmail," Says T. R.

was this "expression of regret"

which resulted in such a bitter storm of disapproval from Col. Roosevelt and his friends, who declared that the payment of $25,000,000, under the circumstances, would be blackmail. The opposition to the treaty in the Senate also was 43 strong that the administration did not insist upon its ratification during last winter's session. So much of the opposion to the treaty was encountered with-in the President's own party that doubt still exists in the minds of some of his advisers as to the practicability of press-ing it for ratification at the forthcoming session of the Senate. The Colombian senate has, of course, already ratified the treaty and is anxiously awaiting its ratification by the United States Senate. The Nicaraguan treaty has been before he Senate in one form or another for nore than two years. In its present form provides for the payment of $3,000,000 to be government of Nicaragua by the inited States. This sum is to be paid in xchange for Nicaragua's rights to the o-called Nicaraguan interoceanic canal route for naval base rights on the Gulf

f Forseca, and for two islands on the est coast of Nicaragua. The Nicaraguan treaty was negotiated Secretary Knox, in the Taft admin-tration, and approved by Mr. Bryan, with Cuba. This meeting with opon from Democrats in the Senate ed for its ratification in its original form Most of the opposition to the Nicara guan treaty has come from Democrati Senators, but one or two Republican members are also opposed to it. It is charged by the opposition that the gov ernment of Nicaragua does not represen the people of that country, and would collapse were it not for the presence of American marines in Nicaragua, It is also asserted on behalf of Costa Rica. Saltador and Honduras that the Nicaraguan treaty ignores their rights in the Nicacaguan Canal route and in regard to the Bay of Fonseca, remarded in administration quarters as mile the most important step taken by this government in the region of the Caribbean in many years. It is the outgrowth of the turbulent situation in the negro republic which last July caused the isoding of American marines and blue-jackets in Halti, who have since practically taken over the admistration of the entire country. The treaty gives the Uni-ted States government a large measure of control over the finances and policing of Halti, and is regarded as a guarantee that the regime of successive revolutions is permanently ended.

Many of the President's friends believe that he will have a measurably better chance for procuring the ratification of the Colombian treaty at the next session of the Senate than at the last. It is pointed out by them that the treaty is designed not only to wipe out the ifffeeling of Colombia toward the United States, but that it is expected to have a wholesome effect upon the attitude of al the Latin-American countries toward the United States. It has been held that the suspicion of Latin-Americans as regards purposes of the United States in recent years was intensified by what they regarded as unjustifiable interference from Washington in the revolution by which Panama became independent of Officials Believe it Affords Proof that Germany Wishes to Settle Submarine Dispute.

While officials declined yesterday to comment on Foreign Minister von Ja-gow's conciliatory and optimistic interview on the submarine controversy between the United States and Germany, it was indicated that they regarded it as a gratifying and hopeful sign.

it is presumed here that it will be only a few days now before Ambassador Bernstorff returns to Washington to resum his discussions with Secretary of State Lansing, which were suspended while he awaited further instructions from Berlin. There have been alarmist stories of the speedy break of the cabinet on the question of conscription or of a general election to decide that question.
